Answer Key | Q12-Q170, 44 questions

Q.No	Question	Correct Answer	Syllabus	Explanation
12	Match the following : Subject (a) India's membership of the commonwealth (b) India adopted National Anthem (c) India adopted National Flag (d) First draft of the Constitution Published Year 1. 1950 2. 1949 3. 1948 4. 1947 (A) (a) 2 (b) 1 (c) 4 (d) 3 (B) (a) 4 (b) 1 (c) 2 (d) 3 (C) (a) 2 (b) 3 (c) 4 (d) 1 (D) (a) 1 (b) 2 (c) 4 (d) 3	A) (a) 2 (b) 1 (c) 4 (d) 3 [Commonwealth membership-1949, National Anthem-1950, National Flag-1947, First Constitution draft-1948]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	India's National Flag (the tricolour with the Ashoka Chakra) was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on 22 July 1947, just before independence. The first draft of the Constitution was published in February 1948 by the Drafting Committee headed by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, for public discussion before the Constituent Assembly debated it clause by clause. Through the London Declaration of April 1949, India secured continued membership of the Commonwealth of Nations even after becoming a republic, by accepting the British monarch merely as 'Head of the Commonwealth'. Finally, 'Jana Gana Mana' was adopted as India's National Anthem by the Constituent Assembly on 24 January 1950, two days before the Constitution came into force. So the order is Commonwealth membership-1949, Anthem-1950, Flag-1947, First draft-1948, option (A). 13	Which among the following is correct with regard to Fundamental Rights in India? (i) Fundamental Rights uphold equality of certain individuals. (ii) It establishes a Government of Laws and not of men. (iii) It promotes the ideal of political democracy.	C) (ii) and (iii) are correct	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Fundamental Rights (Part III of the Constitution) guarantee equality to all citizens before the law, not merely to 'certain individuals' -- Article 14 promises equality and equal protection of laws to every person, so statement (i) misstates this core principle and is incorrect. Fundamental Rights are frequently described as establishing 'a government of laws, and not of men', because they place enforceable legal limits on the arbitrary exercise of state power, so (ii) is correct. By guaranteeing rights such as equality, freedom of speech

	(A) (i), (ii) and (iii) are correct (B) (i) and (ii) are correct (C) (ii) and (iii) are correct (D) (i) and (iii) are correct			and association, and protection against discrimination, Fundamental Rights also promote political democracy by enabling citizens' free and equal participation in political life -- so (iii) is correct. The correct combination is (ii) and (iii), option (C). Source: Class 10 Civics, Unit 1 "Indian Constitution"
14	Which of the following statement(s) is/are true about the election of the President of India? (i) The elected members of both Houses of Parliament. (ii) The elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the States. (iii) The members of the Legislative Assemblies of the all Union Territories. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (ii) only (C) (i) and (iii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	B) (i) and (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 54, the President of India is elected by an Electoral College consisting of the elected members of both Houses of Parliament and the elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the States (statements (i) and (ii)). The 70th Constitutional Amendment (1992) extended this to include elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the National Capital Territory of Delhi and the Union Territory of Puducherry -- the only Union Territories with their own Legislative Assemblies -- not 'all' Union Territories, most of which have no legislative assembly and play no role in the election. Since statement (iii) wrongly claims all Union Territories participate, the correct answer is (i) and (ii) only, option (B). 15	Choose the right matches. Dates of Constitution of the Lok Sabha (1) Fourth Lok Sabha - 23.03.1977 (2) Sixth Lok Sabha - 15.03.1971 (3) Eighth Lok Sabha - 31.12.1984 (4) Tenth Lok Sabha - 20.06.1991 (A) (1) and (3) are correct (B) (1) and (2) are correct (C) (2) and (3) are correct (D) (3) and (4) are correct	D) (3) and (4) are correct	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Fourth Lok Sabha was actually constituted in March 1967, not 23.03.1977 -- that later date instead marks the constitution of the Sixth Lok Sabha, formed after the Janata Party's sweeping victory in the March 1977 elections following the Emergency; so both (1) and (2) as printed pair the wrong dates. The Eighth Lok Sabha was duly constituted on 31 December 1984, after the December 1984 general elections held in the wake of Indira Gandhi's assassination, which gave Rajiv Gandhi's Congress a massive majority -- so (3) is correctly paired. The Tenth Lok Sabha was constituted on 20 June 1991, after the 1991 general elections held in phases following Rajiv Gandhi's assassination during the campaign, bringing P.V. Narasimha Rao's minority government to power -- so (4) is correctly paired. Hence the correct matches are (3) and (4), option (D).

16	Which of the following statement is/are correct with regard to the Council of Ministers of a state? (i) To aid and advise the Governor in the exercise of his functions. (ii) The Ministers are appointed by the Chief Minister of the State. (iii) The Council of Ministers are collectively responsible to the Legislative Assembly of the State. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	B) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 163, there is a Council of Ministers headed by the Chief Minister whose duty is to aid and advise the Governor in the exercise of his functions -- so statement (i) is correct. Under Article 164, Ministers are appointed by the Governor on the advice of the Chief Minister, not directly 'by the Chief Minister' -- the Chief Minister only recommends names; the formal appointment is a gubernatorial act, so statement (ii) is incorrect as worded. Article 164(2) makes the Council of Ministers collectively responsible to the Legislative Assembly of the State, meaning the entire council must resign if it loses the Assembly's confidence -- so statement (iii) is correct. The correct combination is (i) and (iii) only, option (B). Source: Class 10 Civics, Unit 3 "State Government" and Class 12 Political Science, Unit 3 "Executive"
17	Match the following : Subject-matter (a) Powers to impose taxes of Panchayats (b) Audits of Panchayats (c) Finance Commission to Panchayats (d) Reservation of Panchayats Articles 1. Article 243 I 2. Article 243 D 3. Article 243 E 4. Article 243 J 5. Article 243 H (A) (a) 4 (b) 5 (c) 1 (d) 3 (B) (a) 5 (b) 4 (c) 1 (d) 2 (C) (a) 2 (b) 3 (c) 5 (d) 1 (D) (a) 3 (b) 2 (c) 4 (d) 5	B) (a) 5 (b) 4 (c) 1 (d) 2 [Powers to impose taxes-Article 243H, Audits-Article 243J, Finance Commission-Article 243I, Reservation-Article 243D]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Part IX of the Constitution (added by the 73rd Amendment, 1992) lays down the Panchayati Raj framework with specific articles for each function. Article 243H empowers State Legislatures to authorise Panchayats to levy, collect and appropriate taxes, duties, tolls and fees. Article 243J provides for the maintenance of accounts and their audit by Panchayats. Article 243I mandates the Governor to constitute a State Finance Commission every five years to review and recommend the distribution of financial resources between the State and its Panchayats. Article 243D provides for reservation of seats for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and women in Panchayats. So the correct match is (a)-243H, (b)-243J, (c)-243I, (d)-243D, option (B). 18	Consider the following statements about	D) A member of the	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 322, the expenses of the UPSC, including Union Public Service Commission. Which among the following statement is correct? (A) The expenses of the UPSC shall be charged on the consolidated fund of state. (B) It shall be the duty of the UPSC will present annually to the Parliament of the work done by the Commission. (C) The Chairman and other members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Prime Minister. (D) A member of the UPSC shall be eligible for appointment as the Chairman of UPSC.	UPSC shall be eligible for appointment as the Chairman of UPSC.		salaries and allowances, are charged on the Consolidated Fund of India, not of any state -- so (A) is wrong. Under Article 323, the UPSC presents its annual report on the work done not directly to Parliament but to the President, who then causes it (along with an explanatory memorandum) to be laid before each House of Parliament -- so (B), as worded, misstates the process. Under Article 316, the Chairman and other members of the UPSC are appointed by the President of India, not the Prime Minister -- so (C) is wrong. Article 316 also provides that a serving or former member of the UPSC is eligible for appointment as its Chairman, which is a correct and well-established statement, making (D) the answer. 19	Match the following : Lok Ayukta in state (a) Maharashtra (b) Rajasthan (c) Uttar Pradesh (d) Himachal Pradesh Estd. year 1. 1973 2. 1975 3. 1983 4. 1971 (A) (a) 1 (b) 2 (c) 3 (d) 4 (B) (a) 2 (b) 3 (c) 4 (d) 1 (C) (a) 4 (b) 1 (c) 2 (d) 3 (D) (a) 3 (b) 4 (c) 1 (d) 2	C) (a) 4 (b) 1 (c) 2 (d) 3 [Maharashtra-1971, Rajasthan-1973, Uttar Pradesh-1975, Himachal Pradesh-1983]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The institution of Lok Ayukta, a state-level ombudsman that investigates corruption and maladministration complaints against public officials, was recommended by the Administrative Reforms Commission (1966) but each state enacted its own law separately. Maharashtra was the pioneer, its Lokayukta and Upa-Lokayuktas Act coming into force in 1971-72, making it the first state with a functioning Lokayukta. Rajasthan followed with its Lokayukta Act in 1973, Uttar Pradesh enacted its Lokayukta Act in 1975, and Himachal Pradesh established its Lokayukta later, in 1983. Hence the correct match is Maharashtra-1971, Rajasthan-1973, Uttar Pradesh-1975, Himachal Pradesh-1983, option (C).

20	A party to become recognized State Political Party is to get (i) In general election, the concerned	C) (i) and (ii) are correct	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968, one standard condition for a party to be recognised as a 'State Party' is that at the last general party should get minimum 6% of valid vote. (ii) In a state assembly elections the party should get victory in atleast 2 constituencies. (iii) In general election, the concerned party should get minimum 8% of vote. (iv) In a state assemble elections the party should get victory in atleast 4 constituencies. (A) (i) and (iv) are correct (B) (ii) and (iii) are correct (C) (i) and (ii) are correct (D) (iii) and (iv) are correct			election to the State Legislative Assembly, it must have secured at least 6% of the total valid votes polled in that state AND won at least 2 seats in that Assembly. These two conditions -- the 6% vote-share threshold and winning at least 2 seats -- form a single combined criterion, matching statements (i) and (ii). (The 8% vote-share and 'victory in at least 4 constituencies' figures in (iii) and (iv) are distractors not part of this particular combined rule.) Hence the correct answer is (i) and (ii), option (C). Source: Class 7 Civics, Term 1 Unit 2 "Political Parties"

28	From the following, which of the egalitarian social order lays foundation for Constitution of India? (i) Abolition of untouchability (ii) Protection from social injustice and exploitation (iii) Prohibition of illegal migrants (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	C) (i) and (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	An 'egalitarian social order' means a society built on equality and dignity for all, free from discrimination and exploitation - this is exactly what the Constitution's Article 17 (abolition of untouchability) and Article 46/23 read with the Directive Principles (protection of weaker sections from social injustice and all forms of exploitation) aim to secure, forming the moral and social foundation for the Constitution. Prohibition of illegal migrants, by contrast, is a matter of citizenship and border/immigration law (dealt with under Articles 5-11 and statutes like the Citizenship Act), and has nothing to do with building an egalitarian social order. Hence only (i) and (ii) fit. Source: Class 10 Civics, Unit 1 "Indian Constitution"
29	NITI Aayog _____ (i) is an advisory body. (ii) allocate funds to the State Government. (iii) has the power to impose policies. (iv) appoints part-time members based	D) (i) and (iv)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	NITI Aayog (National Institution for Transforming India), which replaced the Planning Commission in 2015, was deliberately designed as a think-tank and advisory body to the Union and State Governments - it has no statutory or constitutional power to allocate funds (that role now lies with the Finance Commission and the Union Budget/Ministry of Finance) and it cannot impose policies on the requirements. (A) (i) and (ii) (B) (ii) and (iii) (C) (ii) and (iv) (D) (i) and (iv)			on states, only recommend and facilitate cooperative federalism. Its composition does include part-time members nominated by the Prime Minister from leading universities, research organisations and other institutions, appointed on a rotational basis as required. So the true statements are (i) and (iv). Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 8 "Planning and Development Politics"

31	The Right of children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, ensures quality education to which age group? (A) 0-5 years (B) 5-10 years (C) 1-5 years (D) 6-14 years	D) 6-14 years	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009, which gives effect to the fundamental right under Article 21A of the Constitution, guarantees free and compulsory quality elementary education to every child in the 6 to 14 years age group, corresponding to Classes 1 to 8. Children below 6 (early childhood) are covered separately under schemes like ICDS/Anganwadi, so the RTE Act's specific statutory age bracket is 6-14 years. 61	Match the following : (a) Union of India Vs Naveen Jindal (b) Prakash Singh Vs Union of India (c) M. Nagaraj Vs Union of India (d) Indian Young Lawyers Assn. Vs State of Kerala 1. Reservation in promotion for SC/ST's 2. Women entry into Sabarimala Temple 3. Right to fly the National flag 4. Police Reforms (A) (a)-3, (b)-4, (c)-1, (d)-2 (B) (a)-2, (b)-4, (c)-1, (d)-3 (C) (a)-4, (b)-2, (c)-1, (d)-3 (D) (a)-1, (b)-4, (c)-3, (d)-2	A) (a)-3, (b)-4, (c)-1, (d)-2	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Union of India v. Naveen Jindal (2004) established the citizen's fundamental right to fly the National Flag with dignity under Article 19(1)(a). Prakash Singh v. Union of India (2006) is the landmark case that directed sweeping police reforms across India. M. Nagaraj v. Union of India (2006) dealt with the constitutional validity of reservation in promotions for SC/ST government employees. Indian Young Lawyers Association v. State of Kerala (2018) is the Sabarimala case, which held that barring women of menstruating age from the temple violated their fundamental rights. This gives a-3, b-4, c-1, d-2, matching option (A).

62	Which of the following features are true about a federal system? (i) Distribution of Powers (ii) Separation of Powers (iii) Dual Government (iv) A strong Union Government (A) (i) and (ii) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (iv) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	B) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The essential features of any federal system are a constitutionally guaranteed distribution of powers between the national and regional governments (i) and the existence of two distinct sets of government - a national/central government and separate state/regional governments, i.e., dual government (iii). 'Separation of powers' (ii) refers instead to the division of functions among the executive, legislature and judiciary within a single government, a concept independent of federalism, so it is not itself a federal feature. Notably, a 'Strong Centre' with correspondingly weaker states is listed among the unitary or non-federal features of a constitution, not among its federal features - so (iv) is actually the opposite of a true federal characteristic. Hence the correct combination is (i) and (iii) only, option (B). Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 5 "Federalism in India"
63	Match correctly the Articles with the subject matter : (a) Article 40 (b) Article 42 (c) Article 43 (d) Article 44 1. Living wage for workers 2. Just and humane conditions of work 3. Uniform Civil Code 4. Organisation of village panchayats (A) (a)-3, (b)-4, (c)-1, (d)-2 (B) (a)-2, (b)-4, (c)-1, (d)-3 (C) (a)-4, (b)-2, (c)-1, (d)-3 (D) (a)-1, (b)-4, (c)-3, (d)-2	C) (a)-4, (b)-2, (c)-1, (d)-3	Unit IV - Indian Polity	These Articles are Directive Principles of State Policy under Part IV of the Constitution. Article 40 directs the State to organise village panchayats and endow them with self-government powers, matching item 4. Article 42 directs the State to secure just and humane conditions of work and maternity relief, matching item 2. Article 43 directs the State to secure a living wage and decent standard of life for workers, matching item 1. Article 44 directs the State to endeavour to secure a Uniform Civil Code for citizens, matching item 3. This gives a-4, b-2, c-1, d-3, which is option (C). 64	Which of the following statements are not true about Speaker of Lok Sabha? (1) The decision of the Speaker as to	D) (2) and (3) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 110(3) of the Constitution, the Speaker's decision on whether a Bill is a Money Bill is indeed final and cannot be challenged in any court, so statement (1) is whether a Bill is Money Bill is final. (2) The Speaker of Lok Sabha shall be submit his resignation letter to the President. (3) A Non-Member of Lok Sabha shall be appointed as Speaker of Lok Sabha. (A) (1) only (B) (1) and (3) only (C) (1) and (2) only (D) (2) and (3) only			true (and hence not part of the 'not true' set). Under Article 94, the Speaker resigns by addressing the letter to the Deputy Speaker, not to the President, so statement (2) is factually incorrect. Also, only a sitting member of the Lok Sabha can be elected as its Speaker; a non-member cannot hold the office, so statement (3) is also factually incorrect. Therefore, the statements that are NOT true are (2) and (3), option (D). Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 2 "Legislature"

65	Consider the following statements and choose the correct option from below : Assertion [A] : Every state in India shall consist of Bicameral Legislature namely Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council. Reason [R] : The members of Legislative Council are directly elected by the people. (A) Both [A] and [R] are true (B) Both [A] and [R] are false (C) [A] true, but [R] false (D) [A] false, but [R] true	B) Both [A] and [R] are false	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Bicameral legislature is not compulsory or universal for Indian states - Article 168 permits a state to have a Legislative Council only if it chooses to create one, and currently only a handful of states (such as Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Maharashtra, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana) actually have one, so Assertion [A] is false. Furthermore, members of the Legislative Council are not directly elected by the general public; they are chosen through indirect methods - by MLAs, by local bodies, by graduates' and teachers' constituencies, and by nomination of the Governor - so Reason [R] is also false. Hence both [A] and [R] are false, option (B). Source: Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 3 "State Government"
66	Which of the following is/are not the recommendations of the committee on Panchayat Raj Finances, 1962? (i) The District Collector was to be a member of Zila Parishad. (ii) Financial Resources to Panchayat Samitis. (iii) Loans to Panchayat Raj bodies. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only	A) (i) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Committee on Panchayati Raj Finances (1962-63) was constituted specifically to examine and strengthen the financial resources of Panchayati Raj institutions, and its recommendations accordingly focused on assigning independent financial resources such as land revenue/cess to Panchayat Samitis (ii) and enabling these bodies to raise loans for developmental works (iii) - both genuine recommendations of this finance committee. The question of the District Collector being made a member of the Zila Parishad, by contrast, is an administrative/structural matter that falls outside the

	(C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only			finance committee's mandate (such administrative questions were addressed by committees like the Balwantrai Mehta Committee on Panchayati Raj structure), so statement (i) is the one that is NOT a recommendation of this particular committee. The answer is therefore (A), '(i) only'.
67	Arrange the following "Human Rights" events in chronological order. (1) Convention on the Elimination of all the forms of discrimination against women. (2) Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). (3) International Committee of Red Cross. (4) Magna Carta. (A) (2), (3), (1), (4) (B) (1), (2), (4), (3) (C) (4), (3), (2), (1) (D) (3), (1), (4), (2)	C) (4), (3), (2), (1)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Arranging these landmark human-rights milestones by year: the Magna Carta (1215) is the earliest, an English charter limiting the monarch's power and asserting certain basic rights; the International Committee of the Red Cross was founded in 1863 to protect victims of armed conflict; the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1948; and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) was adopted in 1979. So the chronological order is (4) Magna Carta, (3) Red Cross, (2) UDHR, (1) CEDAW, which is option (C). Source: Class 8 Social Science, Civics Unit 4 "Human Rights and U N"
68	Which of the following are correctly paired? (1) Kesavananda Bharati Case - 1973 (2) Indira Gandhi Vs. Raj Narain Case - 1970 (3) Minerva Mills Case - 1980 (4) Bachan Singh Case - 1984 (A) (1) and (3) are correct (B) (1) and (2) are correct (C) (2) and (4) are correct (D) (1) and (4) are correct	A) (1) and (3) are correct	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Kesavananda Bharati case, which propounded the 'Basic Structure Doctrine', was decided by a 13-judge bench of the Supreme Court in 1973 - correctly paired. The Minerva Mills case, which struck down clauses of the 42nd Amendment for violating the basic structure by giving unlimited amending power to Parliament, was decided in 1980 - also correctly paired. However, the Indira Gandhi v. Raj Narain judgment, which applied the basic structure doctrine to invalidate a clause insulating the Prime Minister's election from judicial review, was actually delivered in 1975, not 1970, so that pairing is wrong. Similarly, Bachan Singh v. State of Punjab, which laid down the 'rarest of rare' doctrine for awarding the death penalty, was decided in 1980, not 1984, so that pairing is also wrong. Hence only (1) and (3) are correctly paired, option (A).

69	Arrange the following conventions in chronological order. (1) Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against women. (2) Convention on the prevention and punishment of the crime of Genocide. (3) Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. (4) Convention on the Rights of the child. (A) (2), (3), (1), (4) (B) (1), (2), (4), (3) (C) (4), (3), (2), (1) (D) (3), (1), (4), (2)	A) (2), (3), (1), (4)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	By year of adoption: the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide was adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1948, immediately after the horrors of the Second World War; the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD) was adopted in 1965; the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) was adopted in 1979; and the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) was adopted in 1989. Hence the correct chronological order is (2) Genocide Convention, (3) ICERD, (1) CEDAW, (4) CRC, which is option (A). Source: Class 8 Social Science, Civics Unit 4 "Human Rights and U N"
80	Which among the following ministry is entrusted responsible person to the requirements of neglected and marginalised people? (A) Ministry of Tribal Affairs (B) Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment (C) Ministry of Women and Child Development (D) Ministry of Minority Affairs	B) Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Union Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment is the nodal ministry mandated to look after the welfare, social justice and empowerment of disadvantaged and marginalised sections of society in general, including Scheduled Castes, Other Backward Classes, persons with disabilities, senior citizens, and other neglected groups, whereas the Ministries of Tribal Affairs, Women and Child Development, and Minority Affairs each cover a narrower, specific constituency (tribals, women/children, and religious minorities respectively). Because the question asks about neglected and marginalised people broadly rather than one specific group, the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment is the correct, most encompassing answer.
110	Identify the country does not have a Federal System of Government. (A) Russia	D) South Africa	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Russia, Switzerland and Australia are all classic examples of federations, with constitutionally defined power-sharing between a central/federal government and constituent states, republics, or cantons. South Africa, by contrast, is

	(B) Switzerland (C) Australia (D) South Africa			constitutionally structured as a unitary state with a degree of administrative decentralisation to its nine provinces (often described as 'quasi-federal'), but ultimate sovereignty and legislative supremacy rest with the national Parliament rather than being constitutionally divided as in a true federation. Hence South Africa is the country here that does not have a genuine federal system of government, option (D). Source: Class 11 Political Science, Unit 6 "Forms of Government"
111	Arrange the following items in chronological order according to the parts of the Indian constitution: (1) Elections (2) Official languages (3) Panchayat Raj (4) Union Territories (A) (4), (3), (1), (2) (B) (3), (4), (2), (1) (C) (2), (3), (1), (4) (D) (4), (3), (2), (1)	A) (4), (3), (1), (2)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Constitution of India is organised into numbered Parts, and each topic here falls under a specific Part: Union Territories is dealt with in Part VIII, the Panchayats in Part IX (added by the 73rd Amendment), Elections in Part XV, and the Official Language provisions in Part XVII. Arranging these by their Part numbers in ascending order gives Union Territories (VIII) → Panchayat Raj (IX) → Elections (XV) → Official Languages (XVII), i.e., the sequence (4), (3), (1), (2), which matches option (A). 112	Fundamental duties under Indian Constitution apply to which of the following? (A) Citizens of India only (B) All persons (C) To foreigners also (D) To citizens above 21 years only	A) Citizens of India only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 51A, inserted into Part IVA of the Constitution by the 42nd Amendment Act, 1976, on the recommendation of the Swaran Singh Committee, begins with the words 'It shall be the duty of every citizen of India...', explicitly restricting the ten (now eleven, after the 86th Amendment added one on parents providing education) Fundamental Duties to citizens alone. This differs from many Fundamental Rights in Part III (such as Article 21) which extend protection to 'all persons', including foreigners. Therefore the correct answer is option (A), Citizens of India only. Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 1

113	Which of the following was added to the Directive Principles list by 42nd Amendment Act of 1976? (A) Equal justice and free legal aid (Art. 39 A) (B) Organisation of village Panchayats (Art. 40) (C) Uniform Civil code (Art. 44) (D) Provision for free and compulsory education for children (Art. 45)	A) Equal justice and free legal aid (Art. 39 A)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 39A, which directs the State to secure equal justice and provide free legal aid to ensure that opportunities for justice are not denied to any citizen due to economic or other disabilities, was newly inserted into the Directive Principles of State Policy by the 42nd Constitutional Amendment Act, 1976 - the same wide-ranging amendment (during the Emergency) that also added Fundamental Duties. Articles 40 (village panchayats), 44 (Uniform Civil Code) and the original wording of 45 (free and compulsory education) were all already present in the Constitution as adopted in 1950, so they were not additions of the 42nd Amendment. Hence option (A) is correct.
114	Assertion [A] : While a proclamation of emergency is in operation, a Parliament shall have power to make Laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the state list. Reason [R] : Article 1 of the Indian Constitution describes India as a Union of States. (A) [A] is true, but [R] is false (B) [A] is false, but [R] is true (C) Both [A] and [R] are false (D) Both [A] and [R] are true	D) Both [A] and [R] are true	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 250 of the Constitution provides that while a Proclamation of National Emergency (under Article 352) is in operation, Parliament acquires the power to make laws for the whole or any part of India with respect to any matter in the State List, effectively converting the federal structure into a unitary one for the duration of the emergency - so Assertion [A] is true. Article 1 separately and correctly states 'India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States' - so Reason [R] is also true as a standalone constitutional fact. Since no option here requires [R] to explain [A] (only whether each is individually true or false), and both statements are factually accurate, option (D) is correct. 115	Which of the following statements is/are true about Governor's power for assent to Bill? (i) The Governor can reserve the Bill for the consideration of the President.	D) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 200 of the Constitution, when a Bill passed by the State Legislature is presented to the Governor, he has four options: give assent, withhold assent, return the Bill for reconsideration (except Money Bills), or reserve it for the consideration of the President - so statement (i) is

	(ii) He can assent the Bill but he cannot withhold the assent. (iii) When a Bill is likely to affect the powers of High Courts of state the Governor must reserve it for the consideration of President. (A) (i) only (B) (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (i) and (iii) only			true. Statement (ii) is false because the Governor is not limited to only assenting; he can also withhold assent or return the Bill. The proviso to Article 200 specifically requires the Governor to reserve for the President's consideration any Bill that would, in his opinion, so derogate from the powers of the High Court as to endanger the position which that Court is designed to fill under the Constitution - so statement (iii) is true. This makes (i) and (iii) the correct combination, option (D). Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 3 "Executive" and Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 3 "State Government"
116	Which is/are the statement correct about the Money Bills? (i) A Money Bill cannot originate the Upper House. (ii) The Upper House has no power to amend or reject Money Bill. (iii) Constitution has a provision for resolving any deadlock between the two houses regarding Money Bills. (A) (i) only (B) (ii) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (i) and (iii) only	C) (i) and (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 109 of the Constitution mandates that a Money Bill can be introduced only in the Lok Sabha (the Upper House, Rajya Sabha, cannot originate one) - statement (i) is true. The Rajya Sabha can only make recommendations on a Money Bill within 14 days, which the Lok Sabha is free to accept or reject; it cannot amend or reject the Bill outright, so statement (ii) is also true. Statement (iii) is false because the joint-sitting deadlock-resolution mechanism under Article 108 applies only to ordinary Bills; for Money Bills there is no such deadlock provision because the Lok Sabha's will alone prevails by design. Hence the correct combination is (i) and (ii) only, option (C). Source: Class 12 Political Science, Unit 2 "Legislature" and Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 2 "Central Government"
117	Which of the following is/are true about the residuary powers under the Constitution? (i) It follows the precedent of Canada. (ii) The Constitution vests the residuary power in the Union Legislature. (iii) Residuary powers are conferred	C) (i) and (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Unlike the U.S. Constitution, which leaves residuary powers (those not specifically enumerated in any list) with the states, the Indian Constitution follows the Canadian model by vesting residuary powers in the Centre - so statement (i) is true. Article 248 explicitly gives Parliament (the Union Legislature) exclusive power to make laws on any matter not enumerated in the State List or Concurrent List, including the power to impose any new

	upon the courts. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only			tax not mentioned in the lists - so statement (ii) is true. Statement (iii) is false, as residuary power is a legislative power assigned to Parliament, not a judicial function conferred on courts. This makes (i) and (ii) the correct combination, option (C). 118	Find out the correct statements on the 104th Constitutional Amendment Act, 2019. (i) This Amendment extended the reservation of seats for the SC's and ST's in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies for a further period of ten years i.e. upto 2030. (ii) This Amendment eliminates the special representation of the Anglo-Indian Community in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies by nomination. (iii) This Amendment extended the special representation of the Anglo-Indian Community in the Lok Sabha and state Legislative assemblies by nomination for a further period of 10 years i.e. 2030. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	C) (i) and (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The 104th Constitutional Amendment Act, 2019 extended the reservation of seats for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies for a further ten years, i.e. up to 26 January 2030 - statement (i) is true. However, this same amendment did the opposite of extending Anglo-Indian representation: it discontinued/eliminated the reservation of seats for the Anglo-Indian community that had earlier been provided by nomination under Articles 331 and 333, on the reasoning that the community's population had become negligible - so statement (ii) is true and statement (iii), which claims the amendment 'extended' Anglo-Indian representation, is false (it did the reverse). Hence only (i) and (ii) are correct, option (C).
119	Consider the following statements, choose the correct answer: (i) The Right to Information Act enacted in the year 2005.	C) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Right to Information Act was indeed enacted by Parliament in 2005, coming into full force on 12 October 2005 - statement (i) is true. The Act's real purpose is to empower ordinary citizens, not public officials, by giving

	(ii) It empowers the public officials. (iii) RTI Act makes the Democracy works for people in Real time. (iv) The Act also includes information relating to any private body which can be accessed by the General Public. (A) (ii) and (iii) only (B) (iii) and (iv) only (C) (i) and (iii) only (D) (i) and (iv) only			them the tool to demand transparency and accountability from the government, so statement (ii), which says it empowers public officials, is false. The RTI Act is widely described as making democracy function in real time for the people because it lets citizens directly question and monitor governmental decision-making rather than waiting for periodic elections, so statement (iii) is true. Statement (iv) subtly misstates Section 2(f): information relating to a private body is covered only if it 'can be accessed by a public authority under any other law' currently in force, not information 'accessed by the General Public' directly, so it is false. This leaves (i) and (iii) as the correct combination, option (C). 120	Assertion [A], Reason [R] Question Type : Assertion [A] : "Ascertaining Caste as part of the ongoing nation wide census exercise was nothing wrong" - Supreme Court. Reason [R] : Ascertaining caste to know how many people are in need of welfare and it is a matter of public policy. (A) [A] and [R] are correct; [R] is the correct explanation of [A] (B) [A] and [R] are correct; [R] is not correct explanation of [A] (C) [A] is true; [R] is false (D) [R] is true; [A] is false	A) [A] and [R] are correct; [R] is the correct explanation of [A]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	In recent rulings and observations on the caste-enumeration component of the national census, the Supreme Court has held that including caste data in the census exercise is not unconstitutional, since gathering such data is a routine administrative exercise and does not by itself amount to discrimination - so Assertion [A] correctly reflects the Court's reasoning. The Reason given - that knowing caste-wise population figures helps the government identify how many people need welfare support and design targeted public policies (e.g., for reservations and welfare schemes) - is precisely the rational justification the Court itself relied upon in holding the exercise to be constitutionally permissible. Since [R] genuinely explains why [A] is true, option (A) is correct.
125	Given below are two statements Statement I : One of the major characteristics of good governance is that it is autocratic. Statement II : RTI (Right to Information)	D) Statement I is false but Statement II is True	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Good governance, as defined by the UNDP/World Bank framework used in Indian administration, rests on characteristics such as participation, rule of law, transparency, responsiveness, consensus-orientation, equity, effectiveness, efficiency and accountability - it is

	is one of the tool of good Governance. In the light of the above statement choose the correct answer from the option given below. (A) Both Statement I and II are True (B) Both Statement I and II are False (C) Statement I is true but Statement II is False (D) Statement I is false but Statement II is True			precisely the opposite of being autocratic (arbitrary, unaccountable rule). So Statement I is false. The Right to Information Act, 2005, by empowering citizens to access government records, promotes transparency and accountability and is widely recognised as an important tool of good governance, so Statement II is true. Hence option (D) is correct. Source: Class 11 Political Science, Unit 6 "Forms of Government" and Class 11 Political Science, Unit 4 "Basic Concepts of Political Science"
128	Comparing the 14th and 15th Finance Commissions, which of the following statements are correct? (i) The weightage of income distance has increased (ii) The weightage of population (2011 census) has increased (iii) The weightage of area has remained the same (A) (i) and (ii) only (B) (ii) and (iii) only (C) (i) and (iii) only (D) (i) only	B) (ii) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The devolution formula changed between the 14th Finance Commission (2015-20) and the 15th Finance Commission (2021-26). Income distance (a proxy for a state's fiscal need, based on per-capita income gap from the richest state) actually carried a weight of 50% under the 14th FC but was reduced to 45% under the 15th FC - so statement (i), which claims an increase, is false. The 14th FC used only a small 10% weight for '2011 demographic change' (on top of a 17.5% weight for 1971 population), while the 15th FC dropped the 1971 base entirely and assigned population (2011 census) a full 15% weight - a net increase, making statement (ii) true. Area retained its 15% weight in both Commissions, so statement (iii) is also true. Hence only (ii) and (iii) are correct, option (B).
131	What is the Act of the Indian Constitution that has special provisions for the socio-economic development of SCs, STs and OBCs? (A) Article 220-225 of Part XVI (B) Article 114-120 of Part XVI (C) Article 330-342 of Part XVI (D) Article 350-355 of Part XVI	C) Article 330-342 of Part XVI	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Part XVI of the Constitution of India, titled 'Special Provisions Relating to Certain Classes', spans Articles 330 to 342. It provides for reservation of seats for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies (Articles 330, 332), reservation in public services (Article 335), appointment of a Commission for Backward Classes (Article 340), and the power of the President to specify which castes/tribes are 'Scheduled' (Articles 341-342) - the constitutional basis for socio-economic upliftment of SCs, STs and OBCs. Hence option (C) is correct.

163	Assertion [A] : Preamble generally sets the ideals and goals which the makers of the Constitution intend to achieve through the Constitution. Reason [R] : Preamble is also regarded as a Key to open the mind of the makers of the Constitution. (A) [A] is true but [R] is false (B) Both [A] and [R] are true, but [R] is the correct explanation of [A] (C) [A] is false, [R] is true (D) Both [A] and [R] are true, but [R] is not the correct explanation of [A]	B) Both [A] and [R] are true, but [R] is the correct explanation of [A]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Preamble to the Indian Constitution declares India to be a sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic republic and lists the ideals of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity that the Constitution-makers sought to achieve, so the Assertion is true. The description of the Preamble as a 'key to open the mind of the makers' was famously used by jurist Ernest Barker and endorsed by the Supreme Court, precisely because it reveals the underlying philosophy, ideals and intentions behind the constitutional text - which is exactly why it can be said to set the ideals and goals of the makers. Since the Reason directly accounts for why the Preamble performs the role stated in the Assertion, both are true and R is the correct explanation, so option (B) is correct. 164	Which of the following are prohibited under Art. 23 of the Constitution of India? (i) Traffic in human beings (ii) Beggary (iii) Untouchability (iv) Forced Labour (A) (i) and (ii) only (B) (i), (ii) and (iii) only (C) (i), (ii) and (iv) only (D) (ii), (iii) and (iv) only	C) (i), (ii) and (iv) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 23 of the Constitution, under the Right against Exploitation, prohibits traffic in human beings and begar and other similar forms of forced labour, making violation of this a punishable offence; 'beggary' here is used in the sense of begar (compulsory unpaid labour), which together with human trafficking and other forced labour are exactly the practices Article 23 targets. Untouchability, by contrast, is separately abolished under Article 17, not Article 23. This distinction is a standard feature of the Fundamental Rights chapter, so the correct set is (i), (ii) and (iv), making option (C) correct. Source: Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 1 "Indian Constitution"
165	Which of the following Article in the Indian Constitution is incorrectly	B) (ii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 74 provides for a Council of Ministers headed by the Prime Minister to aid and advise the President, Article 85 deals with sessions, prorogation and dissolution of paired? Article - Provision (i) Article 74 - Council of Ministers (ii) Article 76 - Advocate General of India (iii) Article 85 - Sessions of the Parliament (iv) Article 75 - Tenure of Ministers (A) (i) and (ii) (B) (ii) only (C) (iii) and (iv) (D) (iv) only			Parliament, and Article 75 covers the appointment and tenure of Ministers (who hold office during the pleasure of the President) - all three are correctly paired. Article 76, however, provides for the Attorney General of India, the Union's highest law officer; the Advocate General is a separate, state-level office created under Article 165, so pairing Article 76 with 'Advocate General of India' is the incorrect one. Hence only (ii) is wrongly paired, making option (B) correct. Source: Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 2 "Central Government" and Class 12 Political Science, Unit 3 "Executive"

166	Assertion [A] and Reason [R] question Type : Assertion [A] : The emoluments and allowances of the Governor shall not be diminished during his term of office. Reason [R] : Where the same person is appointed as Governor of two or more states, the emoluments and allowances payable to the Governor shall be allocated among the states in such proportion as the President may by order determine. (A) Both [A] and [R] are true and [R] is the correct explanation of [A] (B) [A] is true but [R] is false (C) [A] is false but [R] is true (D) Both [A] and [R] are true but [R] is not the correct explanation of [A]	D) Both [A] and [R] are true but [R] is not the correct explanation of [A]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Article 158 of the Constitution guarantees that a Governor's emoluments and allowances cannot be reduced during their term of office, protecting the independence of the office - so the Assertion is true. It is also true, under a provision inserted for cases of common Governors, that when one person is appointed Governor of two or more states, the President determines how the emoluments payable are apportioned among those states - so the Reason is factually correct as well. However, this apportionment rule for multi-state Governors does not explain why emoluments cannot be reduced during a Governor's tenure; the two provisions address different aspects of gubernatorial remuneration. Hence both statements are true, but R is not the correct explanation of A, making option (D) correct. Source: Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 3 "State Government"
167	Identify the correct statement about Money Bill. (i) A Money Bill must originate in the Lower House of the State Legislature.	B) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Under Article 198 of the Constitution, a Money Bill can be introduced only in the Legislative Assembly (the Lower House) of a state, not in the Legislative Council, so statement (i) is true and (ii) is false. Once passed by the Assembly, the Bill is sent to the Legislative Council only

	(ii) A Money Bill must originate in the Legislative Council. (iii) The Legislative Council cannot reject or amend the bill. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (iii) only (C) (ii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only			for its recommendations; the Council can suggest changes within 14 days, but the Assembly may accept or reject those suggestions, and the Council itself has no power to reject or amend the Bill outright, so statement (iii) is also true. This mirrors the Lok Sabha-Rajya Sabha relationship for Money Bills at the Union level under Article 109, and the correct combination is (i) and (iii) only, making option (B) correct. 168	Reason and Assertion type : Assertion [A] : Seventy third Constitutional Amendment Act, 1992 was enacted to strengthen the Panchayat system in villages. Reason [R] : Article 40 of the Directive Principles of State policy provides the state shall take steps to organise village Panchayats. (A) Both [A] and [R] are true and [R] is the correct explanation of [A] (B) Both [A] and [R] are true, but [R] is not the correct explanation of [A] (C) [A] is true, but [R] is false (D) [A] is false, but [R] is true	A) Both [A] and [R] are true and [R] is the correct explanation of [A]	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The 73rd Constitutional Amendment Act, 1992 added Part IX to the Constitution, giving constitutional status to Panchayati Raj Institutions and strengthening the three-tier village panchayat system, so the Assertion is true. This reform was directly inspired by Article 40 of the Directive Principles of State Policy, which since 1950 had directed the state to take steps to organise village panchayats and endow them with such powers and authority as may be necessary to enable them to function as units of self-government - the 73rd Amendment was essentially the constitutional fulfilment of this long-standing directive. The Reason genuinely explains why the Amendment was enacted, so both are true and R is the correct explanation, making option (A) correct. 169	Which of the following is incorrectly paired? (1) Attorney General of India - Appointed by the Prime Minister (2) Governor - Appointed by the President (3) Chief Justice of High Court - Appointed by the Chief Minister	D) (1) and (3)	Unit IV - Indian Polity	Both the Governor of a state and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court are appointed by the President of India, under Articles 155 and 124 respectively, so pairs (2) and (4) are correctly matched. However, the Attorney General of India is also appointed by the President (under Article 76), not by the Prime Minister, making pair (1) incorrect; and the Chief Justice of a High Court is appointed by the President in consultation with the Chief Justice of India and the Governor of the state (Article 217), not by the

	(4) Chief Justice of Supreme Court - Appointed by the President (A) (1) and (4) (B) (1) and (2) (C) (2) and (3) (D) (1) and (3)			Chief Minister, making pair (3) incorrect too. Hence the incorrectly paired items are (1) and (3), option (D). Source: Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 2 "Central Government" and Class 10 Social Science, Civics Unit 3 "State Government"
170	Which of the following statements are true about Lokpal in India? (i) Lokpal is an officer appointed by Parliament to investigate the mal-administration. (ii) No Lokpal appointed yet in India. (iii) Lokpal established in Union level, Lok ayuktha established in state level. (A) (i) only (B) (i) and (ii) only (C) (i) and (iii) only (D) (ii) and (iii) only	C) (i) and (iii) only	Unit IV - Indian Polity	The Lokpal is an anti-corruption ombudsman created under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013, passed by Parliament, to investigate complaints of corruption and mal-administration against public functionaries at the Union level, so statement (i) is broadly true. The Act envisages a Lokpal at the central/Union level and corresponding Lokayuktas to be set up by individual states, so statement (iii) is also correct. Statement (ii) is false, since India did appoint its first Lokpal chairperson (Justice Pinaki Chandra Ghose) in March 2019, well before this exam. Hence the true statements are (i) and (iii), making option (C) correct.
